VACATION & MASS

Going on vacation? Don't forget to check out masstimes.org to find a Catholic church in the area you will be staying. You never know what a great choir or homily you will hear in a different church. Stop and thank the Lord for a great vacation.

Becoming Catholic

Perhaps you are moved by the beauty of the Mass. Maybe the Catholic Church's strong promotion of the sanctity of human life and her other social teachings attract you. Or a friend or family member is a Catholic and you admire that person's faith life and spirituality. Whatever the reasons or however strong they may be, you may be considering becoming a member of the Catholic Church. Just how does a person become a Catholic? The RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA) is the journey adults make together in deepening one's relationship with Jesus Christ and His living Body, the Church. It is a period of spiritual formation, prayer and education. The RCIA is not a program of classes. Any person is welcome to consider beginning the RCIA process: the person with a deep level of faith through another religious tradition, the person who has had some experience with religion, and the person who has never had any formal formation in a faith tradition. All persons, baptized and not baptized, are welcome. The first phase of the RCIA process is called INQUIRY. This is the informal period, in which, a person simply comes with questions and curiosity. The Inquiry period is ongoing; there is no start or stopping date. A person may "step in" at any time. If a person decides he/she wants to continue, he/she is welcomed to the next phase, called the CATECHUMENATE. This is a period of several months in which the participants learn more about the full revelation of Christianity in the Catholic Church. Generally, new Catholics are welcomed into the Church each year at the Easter Vigil, the Mass the night before Easter Sunday morning. Persons baptized in other Christian traditions are received into the Church through their making a Declaration of Faith. Persons never baptized receive the Sacrament of Baptism. There may be other times of the year when new Catholics enter the Church's family of faith. If you are interested or curious, please contact Marilyn at 908-459-4483.

WITH SINCERE THANKS

We would like to thank our parishioners who mail or deliver their weekly envelopes to the parish office while they are out-of-town or on vacation. Many understand, parish expenses and obligations do not take vacations. It is very helpful to rely on your continued support.

NEED WEEKLY OFFERING ENVELOPES???

If the soil of your life isn't the way you would like it to be, prayerfully ask the Lord about one thing you can do to till the hardness of doubt, remove the rocks of sin, or pull out the thorns of worry and materialism. And then ask God to give you the grace to follow through on this intention this week.
